

THE CRIBS

The Cribs mark a welcome return and are pleased to finally announce details of their new album For All My Sisters on March 23, 2015.

The band's sixth studio album, it follows 2013's career spanning Payola collection and 2012's Top 10 album In The Belly Of The Brazen Bull.

Having reconvened over the last year in Wakefield and Portland, the band later decamped to New York and Magic Shop studio with legendary producer and The Cars frontman Ric Ocasek (Weezer) to begin recording.

A new label, a new perspective, a new challenge - For All My Sisters marks the start of the next chapter, in a decade long existence that has seen the band continually evolve and thrill, ever advancing whilst stockpiling an enviable arsenal of songs.

The first single, 'Burning For No One', released simultaneously on March 23, will be available on limited 7" and digitally through all discerning musical outlets.

For All My Sisters will be available on double 12" vinyl, CD, deluxe CD/DVD - featuring live footage from the band's two Christmas 2013 shows at Leeds' old Town & Country Club - and digitally through Sonic Blew / Sony Red.
